1 Enoch 108:1-2, 7-15 “Another book which Enoch wrote for his son Methuselah and for those will come after him, and keep the law in the last days. 2 Ye who have done good shall wait for those days till an end is made of those who work evil, and an end of the might of the transgressors. 7 For some of them are written and inscribed above in the heaven, in order that the angels may read them and know that which shall befall all sinners, and the spirits of the humble, and of those who have afflicted their bodies, and been recompensed by God; and of those who have been put to shame by wicked men: 8 Who love God and loved neither gold nor silver nor any of the good things which are in the world, but gave over their bodies to torture. 9 Who, since they came into being, longed not after earthly food, but regarded everything as a passing breath and lived accordingly, and the Lord tried them much, and their spirits were found pure so that they should bless His name. 10 And all the blessings destined for them I have recounted in the books. And He hath assigned them their recompense, because they have been found to be such as loved heaven more than their life in the world, and though they were trodden under foot of wicked men, and experienced abuse and reviling from them and were put to shame, yet they blessed me. 11 And now I will summon the spirits of the good who belong to the generation of light and I will transform those who were born in darkness, who in the flesh were not recompensed with such honour as their faithfulness deserved. 12 And I will bring forth in shining light those who have loved My holy name, and I will seat each on the throne of his honour. 13 And they shall be resplendent for times without number; for righteousness is the judgement of God; for to the faithful He will give faithfulness in the habitation of upright paths. 14 And they shall see those who were born in darkness led into darkness, while the righteous shall be resplendent. 15 And the sinners shall cry aloud and see them resplendent, and they indeed shall go where days and seasons are prescribed for them.” R.H. Charles

Kings shall be blinded by your glory; and God will confer on you a new name. 3 He will hold you aloft in his hands for all to see- a splendid crown for the King of kings.” KJV
